STULTIFIES HERSELF.—The Dublin Irishman shows that England stultifies herself in countenancing any scheme for the recognition of the Confederates, by drawing a contrast between the rule she adopted at the time of the Hungarian war and the one she appears disposed to make in the present civil war in America. We copy the following from the Irishman's remarks:

The case of Hungary and Austria establishes a precedent absolutely conclusive against recognition. We all know how splendidly the Hungarians were led and how magnificently they fought. It is matter of history that in battle after battle held the double headed eagle of Austria went down before the green flag of Hungary. In fair stand up fight the Austrian was beaten, and his armies driven back to the very walls of Vienna. Hungarian Commissioners came to London; they were not miserable slave breeders, like Mason and Slidell, but men of historic names and unsullied characters. How were they received? They were not received at all! The ministers of the day, the aristocracy, and the public at large turned away from them, and their demand for recognition was laughed at. Russia came to the rescue of the Austrian Empire, and again the Hungarian Commissioners appealed to the English nation. They said: "If you refuse yourselves to give us a word of encouragement, at least let us have fair play, and do not permit us to be murdered by the combined hordes of Austria and Russia." They spoke in vain, and England and France looked coldly on while the freedom which Hungary had nobly won was barbarously, and inhumanly, and in defiance of all international law, snatched from her grasp. Now, for what did Hungary fight in 1848? To subvert this ancient Constitution of her land? No, but to vindicate and restore it. To enable a minority of one fourth of her inhabitants to dictate to the majority of three fourths the terms upon which they should live? No, but to assert for all Hungarians the right to own, to rule, to govern their own—their native land. The Hungarian struggle was a glorious and an honorable one—a struggle for nationality, for freedom, for the vindication of national justice and public law; yet these English dogs, these base, bloody and brutal Saxon ruffians who refused to recognize the Hungarian nation even after she had de facto established her independence, now clamor for the recognition of the South, fighting to overthrow the finest Constitution in the world, and to erect upon the ruins of the Republic of Washington a Confederacy whose "corner stone" shall be human slavery!

LEADING QUESTIONS.—Orpheus C. Kerr says that the female Southern Confederacies, who wish to pass to the south of our lines, are asked the following questions by the officers of the Mackerel Brigade:

For how many years has your age been Just Twenty-two?

How many novels do you consume per week?

Were you ever complained of to the authorities for inordinate piano forte playing?

Do you work slippers for the heathen?

If so, for what He, then?

What newspaper's "Marriages and Deaths" do you consider the best?

In selecting a church to attend, what color of prayer book do you find most becoming to your complexion?

How much display of neck do you consider necessary to indicate a Modesty which shrinks from showing an ankle?

Did you ever stoop to folly? or is it Folly alone that stoops to you?

Did you ever eat as much as you wanted at dinner, when members of the opposite sex were opposite?

It is also ordered that no female visitor to the celebrated Southern Confederacy shall carry more than eight large trunks and a bonnet for each month in the year; and that no female shall pass the line whose dimensions in full dress exceed the ordinary space between two pickets, as the latter will, on no account, be permitted to edge away from their stations at this trying crisis in the history of our distracted country.

WEDNESDAY MORNING JAN 7 1863

Project of Taxing our Gold and Silver Mines

The Commissioner of the General Land Office, Judge Edmunds broached the idea of taxing the gold and silver mines located on the public lands in a letter to the Senate Committee on Public Lands, dated the 16th of April, 1862 He has followed it up by introducing in his annual report some remarks in regard to the mines and the means of raising a revenue from them, which we have deemed of sufficient importance to copy. He assumes that the interest on a public indebtedness of $778 000 000 could be paid by the levy of a tax of eight per cent on the produce of the mines, when they are fully developed At six per cent the interest on the public debt as estimated above, would be $46,680,000 a year, and to produce this amount by an eight per cent tax on the gross proceeds of the mines, they would have to yield $583 500 000 The Commissioner estimates in round numbers, the full capacity of our mines for the production of gold and silver at $400 00 000 This shows that the calculation was very loose, as he does not even cipher out the sum necessary to produce the amount desired at eight per cent He states the produce of our Salmon river mines at $20,000 000 for the past year, when in fact, it is but little more than one third of that amount He thinks the total product of the gold and silver mines is about $100,000,000 for the present year. We do not know what the yield of the Colorado Territory mines is, but we know that the yield of the Pacific coast is about one tenth of the sum necessary to raise the interest fund on the assumed national indebtedness at a tax of eight per cent, or about $58 350,000 This sum of money is produced by about 75 000 operative miners and to produce $583,500,000 it will be necessary to have 750 000 operative miners The total population of the American territories on the Pacific coast is not more than 700 000 if so much A little more than one-tenth of the entire population are miners In the same proportion our mountain gold bearing ranges will have 7,000,000 of human beings before this scheme of raising a fund to pay the interest on the national debt can be carried into effect

The Hon Robert J Walker President Pierce's able Secretary of the Treasury, is also out in the Continental with a scheme to sell the gold and silver mines, which may be looked upon as the one which the Government is desirous of adopting, since it is known that Mr. Walker is entirely in the confidence of the President He proposes, in brief to give the miners now occupying gold or silver lands a perfect title, by establishing the lines of their claims and issuing to them patents by the boundaries so fixed, then to sell other lands acre by acre, to the highest bidder above a minimum price, which is to be established by commissioners appointed for each four townships where there is a mining population The plan is elaborated beyond our space to publish or capacity to condense but it has some good points, and is beyond comparison superior to the idea of levying a tax on gross products

The sale of the mineral lands will undoubtedly meet the energetic protest of the mining population of this coast It should at once lead to a lively discussion of the merits of the plans to tax or sell those lands. The sale of the lead mining lands in Northern Illinois is a case in point. The attempt to levy a tax of one sixteenth on the gross products of lead proved a failure The Government kept a mining agent in Galena to lease lands to miners, under what was called "permits " Almost without exception the sixteenth failed to be collected An attempt was made to make the lead-melters account for the lead which came into their hands, which was also a futile endeavor At length the lands were sold in spite of the objections of the people, who believed it to be ruinous to the mining interest The best proof of the contrary is found in the increased prosperity of the mining interest in that section, an increase which began to show itself as soon as the lands were sold

ALLEGED FRAUD —Rumors have been rife for some time back that the Superintendent of Indian Affairs for Oregon had received gold coin from the Assistant Treasurer at San Francisco, on account of payments to be made by him and had transmuted the gold into Legal Tender Notes After very diligent inquiry upon the subject we have not been able to find any person who knows anything about it although we have heard of those that did. Whenever the facts in the case are presented to us, we will publish them for the benefit of the community Until then, we intend to suspend any expression of opinion about the matter In the meantime we think Mr R[illegible] would be doing the Union cause a service by exonerating himself from the scandal connected with his name It is not a personal matter, pertaining to him alone but an argument in the mouths of secession sympathizers against the rectitude of those who are politically affiliated with him In any case we hope that the judgment of the community will only be made up when all the facts in the case are developed

A Glance at the Monthlies

A cynical writer in the Knickerbocker for D[illegible] vents his opinions about People of whom too much has been made First among people of this class are the venerated of history He rejoices in the fact that William Tell Arnold Winkelried and a host of Middle Age heroes are proven to be purely mythical characters having no more real existence than Jupiter [illegible] or Jack the Giant killer

Heroes of a day are thus disposed of

Of heroes who were [illegible] their lives [illegible] are shrivelled in the light of posterity [illegible] make mention as they are in the main forgotten and no good purpose can be [illegible] by recalling them to mind Pass we then to consider the people of our time of whom too much has been made

Newspaper editors come in for a notice —

Too much has been made of the newspaper editor whose [illegible] derive their importance from the number of readers under whose eyes they fall thus reversing what would seem to be the true course of determining their value examination of the character of their [illegible] rather than considering the multitudinous points to which their current carries them

When we regard the numerous depreciatory circumstances which the newspaper editor is compelled to encounter, the advance opinions he is forced to give the unfulfilled prophecies he is compelled to utter the complex questions in science literature and art he is called upon to settle it becomes really wonderful that in spite of [illegible] able to maintain his place among the People of Whom too Much has been Made

Too much has been made of impudent men who assert themselves An insolent Tombs lawyer would make Sir Isaac Newton appear a fool on a five minutes cross examination Too much has been made of public speakers who are usually destitute of administrative and executive ability Too much has been made of doctors who kill as many who would have recovered but for taking their remedies as they cure of those who would have died for the want of them Too much has been made of men who are self educated, who might never have improved good chances if they had been presented Too much has been made of great actors The grave digger is more difficult to play to acceptation than "Hamlet", just as it is more difficult to paint a familiar object to the satisfaction of the public than one which is little known Too much has been made of remarkable musicians whose only talent is in that one particular Too much has been made of monstrosities physical and mental Too much has been made of mystical and oracular writers, that people admire because they do not understand them Too much has been made of old novelists and humorists who are not equal to the modern Dickens is better than Smollett or Sterne, and the Pickwick Papers than all the Randoms and Shandys Too much has been made of Heenan and Sayers But for their connection with the champion's belt neither would have been famous Commodore Ingraham and "Alvarado" Hunter are in the same category Too much has been made of handsome people of both sexes—the handsomest man the cynic ever saw was in Sing Sing State's Prison also of persons with a pleasing address, which is a peculiarity common to all experienced rogues Too much has been made of the opinions of English writers on American institutions a subject they know nothing about Besides they don't understand their own language, but drop their 'h's' and have other conversational disabilities Too much has been made of silent people and on this subject we let the writer speak for himself

Too much has been made of silent men —The tongue is truly characterized as an unruly member yet its quiescence, when attained is not always attributable to good government. And although it seems that length of intervals between utterances should insure an improved quality of remarks, I have not unfrequently found, under the froth of rapid talking ideas such as Professor Slowtongue could not evolve from his dull brain were he to prepare for the endeavor by a century of silence

Frank Leslie's Monthly is beyond our criticism. A more readable, yet a trashier, periodical has not come under our notice You will read along through it with an enjoyable feeling, and when the last page is turned you cannot plead guilty to having got a new idea The proprietor claims that his portraits are perfect likenesses of the persons whom they claim to represent. On this subject the criticism of our Judkins is very pat An individual was looking at a likeness of what purported to be Mrs Lincoln which appeared in one of Leslie's publications. Suddenly throwing it down he remarked, 'This Leslie makes Mrs Lincoln as ugly as the witch of Endor '

Oh, that is nothing, ' says Judkins, 'last week she was the Prima Donna at the Academy of Music, next time she will appear as a Major General, and then as a Hungarian Exile Costume and 'posish' are everything

QUEER RELIGIONISTS.—The defense of the Papal interests in Paris appears to be committed to believers in many creeds A late Paris letter in speaking of the subject says

It is curious to see the heterogeneous elements of which the papal army of litterateurs is made up Mr Proudhon does not profess Christianity. M Drouyn de l'Huys believes in transmigration of souls, and other theories held by French dreamers which are in direct opposition to all the Catholic dogmas The majority who rejected Jules Favre's motion for the evacuation of Rome are Voltaireans M Guizot who represents the temporal power of the Institute is a Protestant of the Evangelical school M C[illegible] late the principal editor of La France, is a Jew, and although he declared in the columns of that journal that the Papacy is the great conservative principle of modern society—goes every Saturday to the Synagogue, and is a scrupulous observer of the law of Moses and the ordinances of the rabbis

PACIFIC RAILROAD —The route of the Central Pacific railroad has been located for eighteen miles out of Sacramento Work was to commence on it after New Year's day and three hundred men were to be employed at once

Miscellaneous Paragraphs

The rebels are making fifty Sharp's rifles a day at Richmond

All political prisoners have been released from the Fortress at Alcatraz Island

Some soldiers connected with the Oregon Cavalry complain that they have received [illegible] pay since their enlistment—now nearly one year

A great many public men are more anxious to know what the Union will be after the war is finished, than to make it what it ought to be while the war is progressing

We have received the first number of the H[illegible] Ref[illegible]m a paper devoted to the propagation of Universalism It is published at Eugene City

The Mormons at Salt Lake have been cultivating the most amicable relations with the California Volunteers A good spirit prevails between them

The assessments in Oregon for the national tax are as follows First district, $508 55 second district $1 679 40 third district $10 67[illegible] 99 tenth district $[illegible] 82 Total —$18 720 77

The court martial in the case of Col Columbus Simms, of the California Volunteers which convened at Salt Lake, has not yet rendered a decision It is thought that it will be unfavorable to him

The California Cavalry, under command of Maj McGarry now stationed at Salt Lake recently inflicted summary punishment on some marauding Indians by shooting them and throwing their bodies into Bear river

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette tells a story of a Kentucky Union woman who made eleven Confederate soldiers prisoners They were probably like some young men about Portland—easily captured and not at all inclined to resist

George Francis Train has adopted the practice of leaving out allusions to the nigger question in his lectures After he is through with the ordinary discourse of the evening he invites all to remain who want to hear that question discussed—those who do not can leave Would it not be a good idea for newspapers to follow his example and issue their views on the question in the shape of a supplement '

Coughs —The sudden changes of our climate are sources of PULMONARY BRONCHIAL and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease recourse should at once be had to 'Brown's Bronchial Troches or Lozenges let the Cold Cough or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice See advertisement dec16daw3m

White's Fever and Ague Drops—For the cure of AGUE, PANAMA FEVER, NEURALGIA and GENERAL DEBILITY

This medicine has been used in private practice for many years with great success Indeed in no instance has it failed to effect a speedy cure in Ague especially one bottle having been found sufficient in most cases and in none are more than two bottles required

A great number of testimonials could be given to verify these statements but the proprietor prefers relying upon the merits of the medicine alone A cure is guaranteed in nine cases out of ten

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

DETAINED.—The heavy easterly winds prevalent yesterday prevented the bark Samuel Merritt from reaching her berth at Couch's Wharf. At our last information she was at the mouth of the Willamette, with the steamers Belle and Cowlitz towing her up, but making small headway.

SAILED.—The bark Industry was to drop down the river this morning at four o'clock, in tow of a steamer. Her cargo consists of 500 boxes of apples and 200 hides.

THE TELEGRAPH.—The telegraph wire was down again at 4 o'clock P. M., on the 30th of December. It was caused by a heavy fall of snow. For this reason we were not able to get any States news yesterday morning.

THE LIBRARY.—The Athenians have determined to defer having a course of lectures in consideration of the fact that the Academy's course, to commence shortly, will satisfy the present demand for that style of entertainment.

ARRIVAL OF THE BARK 'SAM'L MERRITT.'—The bark Sam'l Merritt, Joseph Williams, Commander, was seven days to the Bar, off the Bar three days in tremendous heavy gale commencing from S. E., then hauling to the W. S. W., veering back again to the southward, attended with a very high cross sea. Everything moveable about the decks was washed fore and aft. The vessel crossed the Bar on the 2d of January. The following is her manifest:

A Cahn & Co, 173 packages; Ladd, Reed & Co, 284; Allen & Lewis, 608; Seymour & Joynt, 6; Hurgren & Shindler, 2; W Seller & Co, 67; Portland Gas Co, 50; Capt. Total number of packages, 5558.

PASSENGER.—Mr G B McNamara.

ROYAL CONVERSION.—The king and queen of Hawaii were confirmed in the Christian faith, on the 28th of November, according to the rites of the Reformed Catholic Church, by the Bishop of Honolulu.

SERIOUS JOKE.—A German died at Iowa Hill, California, on the 23d of December, from the effects of croton oil, which some mischievous acquaintances put in his liquor for the fun of the thing.

MASONIC.—The officers of Warren Lodge No. 10 at Jacksonville for the ensuing Masonic year, are Alexander Martin, W. M.; John S. Love, S. W.; John S. Drum, J. W.; Herman Bloom, Sec'y; Henry Judge, Treas.; E. C. Sessions, S. D.; G. W. Greer, J. D.—Sentinel.

ADDITIONAL TROOPS.—Gen. Alvord, commanding this district, has received orders to call out six additional cavalry companies, to fill out the Oregon Cavalry Regiment.

STILL IN THE ASCENDANT.—At the State Fair just closed at New York, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, Iowa, New Jersey and other important points, the Family Sewing Machine of GROVER & BAKER has been awarded the FIRST PREMIUM over all competitors. This award of the various Committees is but in accordance with the almost unanimous expression of opinion of the ladies of California, with whom these celebrated Sewing Machines have become first among their household treasures, and to obtain which is their greatest desire. In former times, Spring and Fall were unwelcome visitors to many wives on whom devolved the care of clothing for the little ones; it was no slight duty to cut, fit and make the clothing as well as attend to the general sewing of their families, and it is not to be wondered at that the advent of these seasons was dreaded. Now, happily, there is a change for the better, and with a "Grover & Baker" Sewing Machine more work can be accomplished in a few hours, and with less fatigue, than could have been done in a day by hand-sewing. From the many machines now held before the public for approval none have attained so enviable a reputation as the "Grover & Baker"—its simplicity places it within use of even children, and its capacity excels all others.

The untiring energy of this firm has been productive of many and rapid improvements, and there is now no branch or style of sewing known to the business, either practical or ornamental, to which the "Grover & Baker" Machine and its improvements cannot be applied. Their Corders, Braiders, Tuckers, &c., are miracles of perfection in operation, and the embroidery of their machines is more popular and beautiful than any other style of ornamental sewing. They have lately introduced a new machine, making the Shuttle Stitch, or stitch alike on both sides, which will commend itself to all who prefer a stitch of this style. To those unacquainted with the merits of either stitch, they offer special inducements, in the fact that any purchaser has the privilege of exchanging the Machine of their first choice for one making either stitch if not suited. We say to all ladies, buy a "Grover & Baker" Sewing Machine, and make home happy and your labors light.

[illegible]

Awaken the Magnetic Life within us

[illegible] Believing [illegible] to the subject, that [illegible] all.

No Compromise with Disease

[illegible] ELECTRICAL [illegible]

To the Ladies of California.

Dr. Van Zandt's success in [illegible] women [illegible] and these [illegible] ills—[illegible] awaken the [illegible] protracted [illegible] long.

Baffled the Skill of Physicians

[illegible] sleeplessness, unpleasant dreams, and that general depression [illegible] render her life a misery and death a boon. Dr. Van Zandt, with his new method of exciting the Electro-Galvanic current, together with his remedial measures which are adapted to the needs of California, will assure you [illegible] all bodily and mental infirmities, and [illegible] restore [illegible] usefulness, and spare you a blessing to your family and society.

All the world over

[illegible] to restore the ELECTRO-GALVANIC equilibrium especially to California, as it is to give food to the starving. This statement is based upon a series of facts extending through many years, and verified by hundreds of patients, so that no principle of science, no rule of experience, no result of any well known cause, rests upon more sure and unassailable foundation than those which underlie the world-wide reputation of Electricity for the cure of all nervous states of the body, faulty digestion, mental and physical debility, [illegible] coughs, asthma, wandering pains of a rheumatic, gouty or mercurial character, and all forms of disease the result of scrofula or cachectic habit of body.

None Need Despair of Relief.

If you have ulcers which will not heal—pains that cannot be removed—melancholy which you cannot shake off—loss of power which you cannot regain—depression of spirits which weigh you down—wakefulness that knows no sleep—business that languishes for want of energy—evil which no society can fill—suspicion which no assurance can allay—Go to Dr. Van Zandt for his great success and the safety with which he administers his new method of electrical excitation, together with his remedies, which are adapted to the requirements of climate and constitution will assure you of a complete and radical removal of all bodily and mental infirmities within the scope of science and man to remove.

The Eye and Ear Diseases.

It must not be forgotten by the eye and ear sufferers that Dr. Van Zandt has made these afflictions an especial study, and that he is the only Surgeon in our State who has a diploma for that branch of practice. Very many of the eye and ear troubles are purely deranged nervous action and are cured by his electro-galvanic battery—as amaurosis, squinting, cataract, floating specks before the vision, twitching of the eyelids, nervous deafness, roaring and buzzing noises in the ears, giddiness, etc. All operations successfully done on those delicate organs of sense.

DR. BAKER'S

PAIN PANACEA.

Is composed entirely of healing gums and vegetable oils and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases. If they are not satisfied with its healing properties, the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally, bathe externally over the parts affected, and it will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound bathe it well with the Pain Panacea four times a day. It will relieve the pain, and take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning, noon and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have a Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea, to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhœa, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely and you will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have a severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe gum at the same time, it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have a pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe parts affected morning and night, at the same time take a dose of the Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea, it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short tim.

Twenty Years Ago.

How wondrous are the changes, Jim,
Since twenty years ago,
When gals wore woolen dresses, Jim,
And boys wore pants of tow;
When shoes were made of cow-hide,
And socks of homespun wool,
And children did a half-day's work
Before they went to school.

The girls took music lessons, Jim,
Upon the spinning-wheel,
And practiced late and early, Jim,
On spindle, swift and reel.
The boys would ride horseback to mill,
A dozen miles or so,
And hurry off before 'twas day,
Some twenty years ago.

The people rode to meetin', Jim,
In sleds instead of sleighs,
And wagons rode as easy, Jim,
As buggies now-a-days;
And oxen answered well for teams,
Though now they'd be too slow,
For people lived not half so fast
Some twenty years ago.

Oh, well do I remember, Jim,
That Wilson's patent stove,
That father bought and paid for, Jim,
In cloth our gals had wove;
And how the neighbors wondered,
When we got "the thing" to go,
And said 'twould burst and kill us all—
Some twenty years ago.

Yes, every thing is different, Jim,
From what it "used to was;"
For men are always tampering, Jim,
With God's great natural laws;
And what on earth we're coming to—
Does anybody know!
For everything has changed so much
Since twenty years ago.

HOW TO FILL A THEATRE.—A Berlin letter tells the following story:

A member of the company at Callenbach's Theatre was to have a benefit night, and the question was how to get a large audience. Accordingly, some days before there appeared in the papers an advertisement to the following effect: "A gentleman, who has a niece and ward possessing a disposable property of 15,000 thalers, together with a mercantile establishment, desires to find a young man who would be able to manage the business and become the husband of the young lady. Apply to ."

Hundreds of letters poured in, in reply to the advertisement. On the morning of the benefit day, each person who had sent a reply received the following note: "The most important point is, of course, that you should like one another. I and my niece are going to Callenbach's Theatre this evening, and you can just drop in upon us in Box No. 1."

Of course the theatre was crammed. All the best paying places in the house were filled early in the evening by a motley male public, got up in a style which is seldom seen at the Royal Opera itself. Glasses were levelled on all sides in the direction of Box No. 1, and eyes were strained to catch the first glimpse of the niece when she should appear in company with the uncle. But uncles are proverbially "wicked old men," and in the present case neither uncle nor niece was to be found, and the disconsolate lovers—of a fortune—were left to clear up the mystery as best they could. The theatre has not had such an audience for years.

DISTANCE OF THE FIXED STARS.—It is not twenty-five years since the distance of a fixed star was measured. This was a star of the sixth magnitude, in the constellation of Cygnus, and its parallax was found to be less than four-tenths of a second of space, which corresponds with a distance of 592,200 mean distances of the earth from the sun, and which requires a period of nine years for the transmission of its light.

This great feat was accomplished in 1840, by that illustrious, self-taught astronomer and mathematician, Frederich Wilhelm Bessel, after three years untiring application to the problem, and constituted an important epoch in the history of sidereal astronomy.

The nearest fixed star yet known is Alpha Centauri, a star of the first magnitude in the southern hemisphere. This star is nearly twenty millions of miles from our sun; a distance which would require nearly three years for its light to reach us.

It was formerly supposed that the larger stars were much nearer to us than the fainter ones; but this is found not to be the case with all of them. The nearest star is of the first magnitude, yet there are stars of the fifth and sixth magnitudes, which are a great deal nearer to us than many of our first. The bright star Capella, which is of the first magnitude, is farther from us than the polo star, which is the third. The last named star is so distant, that if it were annihilated, it would still serve as a guide to the mariner for a quarter of a century. Among the innumerable stars which the telescope discloses to us, there may be those whose light is hundreds, and perhaps thousands, of years in traveling down to our system.

DISORDER OF THE MEMORY.—A French countess during the Revolution, left her country and resided in England. She had a severe attack of fever, in the course of which she became completely delirious. At this time she was frequently heard to cry out in a jargon, which at first was quite unintelligible to everybody, and seemed to consist of mere sounds without meaning. However, there happened to be in the house a Welch domestic, who declared that she understood the countess, and affirmed that she spoke correctly in the Welch language. When the lady recovered from her illness, and again spoke to her friends in an idiom intelligible to them, they related the fact to her, which excited no small surprise and curiosity. They were then informed, that during her infancy she had been taught the dialect of Lower Brittany, by a nurse who was a native of that country, but had totally forgotten it many years before the attack of fever, which in so curious a manner revived the impressions that had been so long obliterated."—Winslow's "Obscure Diseases of the Brain and Mind."

FROM PIKE'S PEAK.—The Rocky Mountain News of December 9th contains the following intelligence:

After some storms with a ten-inch snow fall, the weather had cleared up and continued pleasant. Colorado Territory is regarded at Washington as one of the strongest in the Union. Miss Huldah Estes had recovered $1,200 against A. Mason for breach of promise and seduction. Snow has fallen to the depth of six inches at Santa Fe, New Mexico. Capt. Graydon died from the effects of the wounds received in the affray with Dr. Whitlock at that place. Enthusiastic war meetings were being held at Denver, addressed by their best speakers and largely attended. After a stirring war meeting at Central City for subscribing bounties for volunteers, $1,200 were raised in half an hour. The business men of Central and Black Hawk pledged themselves to increase the amount to $3,000, all of which will be distributed in bounties to Colorado Volunteers. The sum of $250,000 had been expended in paying off the Colorado troops.

ASTONISHED.—When the telegraph poles were first stationed through the valley, a green 'un drove into a village and tied his horse to what he supposed was a spruce pole. He was accosted by a precocious urchin with, "Mister! Mister! what have you done!" "Done," said the fellow; "what do you mean? I hain't done nothin' as I knows on." "Why, yes you have, sir: you have just hitched your horse to the magnetic telegraph, and you'll be in New York in less than two minutes if you don't look out." The man untied his horse with nervous anxiety, and jumping into his sleigh, drove hastily down the street.

THE COST OF WAR.—Christendom enters upon the last half of the nineteenth century with an unpaid war bill amounting to $9,000,000,000, with other liabilities. What a legacy for future generations!—But the most aggravating circumstances connected with this appalling inheritance is the fact that in some cases it will go down to them with the solemn assurances of those who contracted it, that it was all a mistake, and might have been avoided, eminent statesmen, representing all parties, in the British Parliament, have deliberately declared their opinion to the world that the long wars with the French Republic and the Empire were all waged upon a wrong principle, and might have been avoided with honor!

The interest on the war debt of nations, at five per cent., will amount to $450,000,000 yearly. Then there is a considerable sum to be raised for war prospective, in the mere preparation of war in time of peace. This sum cannot amount to less than $450,000,000 more. This grand aggregate tax of $900,000,000 yearly, is imposed upon the people of the civilized world, the earnings and industry of the people by wars past and prospective. This sum is equal to the whole value of all the exports of England, France and the United States put together. It is twice the amount of the rental of all the real estate in Great Britain, exceeds the net profits of all the manufactures in Christendom. It is equal to the yearly wages of four millions five hundred thousand agricultural laborers at $200 a head.—Hunt's Merchants' Mag.
